Dear Jason Sloan:

Thank you for attending Air Vent's seminar Attic Ventilation: Ask the Expert™ -- our free educational seminar we've been offering to the residential roofing industry since 1998. We hope you found the information useful and will be able to apply it in your day-to-day applications.

Enclosed is an official certificate of completion acknowledging that you attended the seminar and that you are knowledgeable concerning attic ventilation principles, installation and best practices. This 2-hour seminar is recognized by the AIA, AIBD, ASHI, ACHI, NAHI, AII, RCI and NARI for continuing education credits. Within 4 weeks Air Vent will forward all AIA member names and membership numbers to AIA headquarters for education credits (2 hours, "Health, Safety & Welfare."). For all other organizations please forward a copy of your certificate of attendance to the national office.

Be sure to visit our website www.airvent.com from time to time for many FREE resources, including:

- CONTRACTOR LOCATOR connecting homeowners to roofing pros when seeking an installer.
- The Air Vent app for IOS and Android devices.
- Product and General attic ventilation PDFs.

And if FREE product interests you please consider "Liking" our Facebook page. We give away product regularly exclusively to our Facebook "friends."

Please keep in touch. Call or email us anytime @ 1-800-AIR VENT; ventilation@gibraltar1.com.

Sincerely,
